Drilling Of 12-Inch Hole Toward Third Digger Progresses

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Henry Throne and David Fellin said Tuesday they feel sure the man trapped with them 14 days ago—Louis Bova—is still alive more than 300 feet underground.

Both Throne, 28, and Fellin, 58, were reported in excellent condition at the hospital where they were taken after their rescue in the hours just after midnight Monday.

From his hospital bed, Fellin insisted on working with rescue officials in drawing a detailed map that might guide them to Bova, who was then without food—except for a lunch he may have carried—since the coal mine caved in at 9 a.m. Aug. 13.

Fellin's wife, Anna, said his concern for Bova was beginning to tell on his ability to sleep. She said he asserted: "I've got to try to help out my buddy."

At the mine, two drilling rigs were used in renewed attempts to reach Bova, 54 and the father of an 8-month-old son.

And, in nearby Shenandoah, Bova's wife, Eva, entered a hospital. Her physician said she was resting comfortably but declined to say why she is there.

Throne Meets Newsman

Mrs. Bova was with Mrs. Throne and Mrs. Fellin through much of Monday as the dramatic rescue operations moved to their climax.

Throne, who reached the surface at 2:07 a.m., felt good enough Tuesday afternoon to hold a news conference. Fellin, who was saved at 2:41 a.m., did not talk with newsmen but he did spend considerable time with officials on Bova's behalf.

Throne and Fellin came up in an open safety harness, in gay spirits, joking and—in Fellin's case—even breaking into song.

The safety harness was described in advance as only an emergency alternative. But the especially designed steel capsule—nearly as wide as the 18-inch escape hole—was abandoned when it was found the hole had a bend that might snap the capsule.

Before dawn, about six feet east of their escape hole, the giant drilling rig began cutting a 12-inch hole in Bova's direction. Fellin suggested the drilling point. The rig moved at a rapid pace all day. The smaller rig moved slower, drilling a six-inch lifeline hole.

Mike, Camera To Be Used

Once the 12-inch hole is completed, it could be enlarged, as the Throne-Fellin escape hole was. Preliminary plans also called for, once it is completed, sending down a super-sensitive microphone and an automatic camera.

These are the fifth and sixth attempts to reach Bova.

The miners last reported hearing from Bova on Aug. 20, but race to break the color barrier in the Danville public schools, entered a high school, a junior high and two elementary schools without incident.

Elsewhere in Virginia, private schools were organizing to provide racially segregated education. The acid mine water had only this type of water before a six-inch lifeline hole reached them a week for an estimated 5,000 students.

Back Bothering Kennedy Again; Has Slight Limp

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy's back ailment is "he is fine." But it added that otherwise he is fine.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, when asked whether Kennedy hurt his back playing golf in recent weekends at Hyannis Port, Mass., told reporters:

"I don't think he hurt it. It is the normal thing with backs like the President's. They have their ups and downs."

Despite his appearance and the fact that he seemed nervous and was tiring his condition the same way he has tended it for a bit heavily, Throne said he felt good.

He said that about four days ago he had to go to the White House gym along with one or two other men in the men's room. The men were in complete darkness and without food, he talked with death.

Salinger said he did not know when the President's back started bothering him again but that it probably was last weekend.

The President's back ailment resulted from strain suffered in May, 1961, while lifting several spades full of soil in a tree-planting ceremony during his state visit to Ottawa, Canada.

Two Explosions Linked To Dixie Desegregation

By The Associated Press

Midnight explosions, both related to school integration, occurred in Louisiana and South Carolina as the South prepared for the fall opening of schools.

No one was hurt by either blast.

At Buras, La., an explosion shortly before midnight Monday wrecked a classroom and started a fire at a Catholic school which has been boycotted since it was briefly integrated last year.

At Columbia, S.C., a midnight explosion, apparently from dynamite, blew a crater in a field 200 yards from the home of a Negro coed who is to enter the University of South Carolina in September by court order.

The coed, Henri Monteith, 18, was at home with her mother, Rebecca Monteith, who called the explosion "A cowardly act."

Miss Monteith said "there's no point in becoming afraid. I'm going to enter the university next month just as planned."

Officials at Our Lady of Good Harbor school at Buras said the blast blew out a wall in a room adjoining the wrecked classroom, cracked the wall in a teachers lounge and in two lavatories.

At Danville, Va., where racial violence flared two months ago, seven Negro children attended classes with white children Tuesday.

The Negroes, the first of their race to break the color barrier in the Danville public schools, entered a high school, a junior high and two elementary schools without incident.

In Washington, U.S. foreign aid chief David Bell said in a television interview the United States desires to continue aiding "the free people of Viet Nam" against the Communist guerrillas.

"We don't support repression in any country," he said.

American authorities here announced the death of a U.S. Army pilot in the anti-Communist war, the 52nd American combat death and the 97th from all causes, including accidents, since the United States assumed a major supporting role here in December 1959.

Troop concentrations increased in downtown Saigon even while there were hints of a relaxation elsewhere in martial law. Maximum security precautions remained in force around the presidential palace.

The pilot was a lieutenant killed Monday when his parachute failed to open when his twin-engine reconnaissance plane was shot down by ground fire.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who presented his credentials to Diem on Monday, followed through with separate talks with two officials high in Diem's administration — his adviser brother Ngo Dinh Nhu and interim Foreign Minister Truong Cuu.

The Vietnamese requested the meetings with Lodge, who gave government made plain its disapprobation of military moves to crush Buddhist and student foes of Diem's administration but intends to remain an ally in the war against Communist insurgents.

Throne, Tito In Full Accord

PULA, Yugoslavia (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and Yugoslav President Tito Tuesday announced "full agreement" on all major issues facing their once feuding nations.

The announcement issued by the official Tanjug news agency came soon after their aides reported they were "highly satisfied" with the progress of their secret reconciliation talks.

The discussions held at Tito's Brioni Island retreat covered "the world peace, 'spreading Khrushchev's doctrine of peaceful coexistence and general and complete disarmament, aid to underdeveloped countries, the 'full liquidation' of colonialism and 'other related questions.'

State Officials Will Inspect Proposed U. Md. Branch Site

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes will join University of Maryland officials next week in inspection of a Baltimore County site which may house the first branch in a university expansion program.

The 1963 Legislature authorized the university to establish branches in Baltimore County, on the Eastern Shore, in Western Maryland and in Southern Maryland. It appropriated $100,000 for planning purposes in this program.

The university's board of regents has assigned top priority to locating a day school in Baltimore County which could serve students commuting in the Baltimore area and relieve overcrowding at College Park.

Gov. Tawes told a new conference Tuesday he and other members of the State Board of Public Works will inspect the proposed Baltimore County site next Thursday, Sept. 5. They will be accompanied by the board of regents and Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, university president.

Tawes said the site being eyed by the regents is 114 acres. He said he does not know its exact location.

In other matters discussed at his conference, the governor said:

1. He is "reconciled" to keeping National Guard troops in Cambridge until after a public referendum Oct. 1 on a city charter.

Tawes Requests Drought Relief For 16 Counties

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes said Tuesday he has asked the Secretary of Agriculture to designate 16 Maryland counties disaster areas for federal relief because of this summer's drought.

The request was forwarded to the secretary Friday on recommendation of the State Agricultural Disaster Committee.

The counties, in which farmers would be eligible for low cost feed grain and low interest loans, include: Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Frederick, Harford, Howard, Montgomery, Prince Georges, Queen Anne's, St. Marys, Talbot, Washington and Worcester.

Drought Poses Threat To Md. Tobacco Crop

LEONARDTOWN, Md. (AP)—Drought conditions in southern Maryland's tobacco country are the worst in 30 years.

Officials in St. Mary's County announced Tuesday they have called a meeting for Saturday morning to discuss ways of coping with the economic crisis.

In addition to tobacco, the yields of corn and soybeans are being seriously affected in southern Maryland.

And the Maryland Crop Reporting Service said Tuesday that rain is needed urgently in the Hancock area for the proper sizing of apples and late peaches.

The apple harvest is due to start next month while peaches are reaching their peak.

State and federal officials are scheduled to attend the meeting in Leonardtown. It is being arranged by State Sen. J. Frank Raley and the county commissioners.

"We believe the problem should be met on a broad scale," they said. "Although there is no cure-all, much can be done to minimize the disastrous effect of this drought by coordinated effort of the various agencies."

While the farmers are the direct sufferers, Raley and the commissioners pointed out that their losses in cash will have effects on other businesses in the area.

Farming is the major source of income in St. Mary's and other southern Maryland counties.

Scheduled to attend Saturday's conference are representatives of Gov. Tawes, Reps. Carlton R. Sickles, Richard E. Lankford, the Federal Area Redevelopment Administration, the state Department of Economic Development and the Farm Bureau.

2 Boys Swim To Freedom

BERLIN (UPI)—Two 16-year-old boys Tuesday dodged Communist bullets to swim across a border canal to freedom in the U.S. sector of West Berlin. Another East German was captured at gunpoint as he tried to scale the Communist wall.

Communist police fired at least 10 rounds at the defenseless youths swimming across the 75-foot-wide Teltow Canal.

The bullets missed and they struggled safely to the Western bank of the canal in the American sector's Buckow district, a country area. They were taken to a hospital for treatment for exhaustion.

The youths had climbed three barbed wire barricades blocking the way to the canal before Eastern border patrols sighted them and rushed up. The boys dived into the canal and the Communist police opened fire.

Sit-Ins Seek Ruling On Right To Protection

WASHINGTON (AP)—Attorneys for Negroes arrested in lunch counter sit-ins in South Carolina and Maryland asked the Supreme Court Tuesday to rule that states have an "affirmative obligation" to protect demonstrators who protest against laws and customs brought about by state action.

The request was made in a brief filed by counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and a group of other attorneys. Their brief applies to appeals by student sit-in demonstrators arrested in southern states. The high court will hear arguments in the fall.

"The 14th amendment," the brief says, "imposes an affirmative obligation on the state to insure 'equal protection of the laws.' It is obvious that federal judicial enforcement of that affirmative obligation would raise difficult questions which need not be broached here."

The attorneys suggest the high court may be obliged to leave the states "a wide area of constitutional discretion in fashioning means to fulfill the duty of equal protection. The definition of the measure of a state's affirmative obligation might even be outside judicial competence and the obligations might have to be left, at least in some circumstances, inchoate and moral only."

The NAACP attorneys say they do not challenge the basic pronouncement by the Supreme Court in 1883 that the 14th amendment applies to state governments and not to individuals. That decision held Congress could prohibit state discrimination but not private action.

The attorneys, however, ask the court to discard this part of the 1883 holding: "That states are not constitutionally responsible for—and that the 14th amendment does not reach or allow Congress to reach—racial discrimination in privately owned business premises."

The brief asks that constitutional prohibitions against discrimination be applied to the public life of the community and says the issues in the sit-in cases are in the "fully public" rather than in private life.

"A restaurant is a public place, contrasting totally with the home and the other traditional citadels of privacy," the brief asserts.

Chase said fruit and vegetable prices, which literally went off the chart kept by the Labor Department, should drop between now and January 1964. So should meat prices, he said.

Pork prices went up by more than 5 per cent in July because fewer hogs were sent to market. Beef and veal were also higher, and the prices of apples, lettuce and tomatoes rose.

The department's consumer price index hit a record high of 107.1, up five-tenths of one per cent over the index for June.

The rise triggered automatic cost-of-living wage increases of from one to three cents an hour for 1,025,000 workers in the auto, aerospace, farm and construction equipment, and trucking industries.

The weatherman forecast fair skies and a high of about 84 for the march.

Here are the highlights of the day's schedule:

Perhaps long before dawn, marchers will begin gathering at the Washington Monument grounds and the Ellipse behind the White House. Beginning at 10 a.m. the crowd will be entertained by music and public bows from Hollywood and Broadway stars, some of whom are flying in from Paris.

Then at 11:30 a.m. the marchers—singing "We Shall Overcome"—are to start for the Lincoln Memorial, less than a mile away. They are to move along Constitution Avenue, Independence Avenue, and across the grass bordering the reflecting pool.

At the memorial, A. Philip Randolph, chairman of the National March Committee, will make opening remarks. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake of the National Council of Churches will talk, and Mrs. Madge W. Evers, widow of the civil rights leader slain in Mississippi, will pay tribute to five Negro women leaders of the civil rights movement.

Next will be speeches by John Lewis of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and Walter P. Reuther of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers.

There will be more speeches and then the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, will deliver the final 4-minute talk.

15,000 From Maryland Will March In D.C.

By The Associated Press

An estimated 15,000 Marylanders will join the demonstration Wednesday in Washington for equal rights and opportunities for Negroes.

The overwhelming majority will assemble and leave from Baltimore although as many as 400 were expected to depart from Annapolis among other cities in the state.

More than 50 buses will be needed in addition to private cars to carry the demonstrators from Baltimore alone. The number of vehicles on the streets and roads will be swelled by demonstrators from other states.

Provision has been made to serve breakfast in two Baltimore churches for an expected 1,000 from Boston.

Gov. Tawes and Mayor McElroy both have proclaimed it "Freedom Day" although declining to give state and municipal employees the time off with pay.

Rep. Carlton R. Sickles, D-Md., introduced Tuesday a resolution urging that federal and District of Columbia employees be granted administrative leave.

Rep. Rogers C. B. Morton, R-Md., refused to appear at the demonstration at the Lincoln Memorial.

"In my opinion, the real forum for this discussion and the real workshop for progress is in the local communities," he stated.

An appearance by Mahalia Jackson, Negro gospel singer, will be challenged in court unless some statute makes that action illegal or improper.

"If Blue Cross doesn't want this hospital, that is their business. If somebody wants to do something about it, that is a matter for legislative action, not the courts."

Attorneys for the hospital argued that by telling its subscribers it will not pay their bills at Baltimore County Hospital, Blue Cross was illegally coercing its subscribers to go elsewhere and causing economic damage to the county facility. They said the hospital might have to go out of business.

Despite the flurry of Senate activity, preparations went forward for a possible strike.

The Post Office Department announced an embargo on all but first-class mail and air mail if a walkout occurs.

It said second-, third-, and fourth-class mail would not be delivered more than 150 miles from the post office of origin. Air mail would continue on present schedules and first-class mail would be moved by alternative transportation as much as possible, the department said.

Acting Postmaster General Sidney W. Bishop said emergency parcels post shipments such as medicine should be sent as first-class or air mail. He advised shippers of perishable goods to discontinue mailing at once.

Tawes Requests Drought Relief For 16 Counties

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes said Tuesday he has asked the Secretary of Agriculture to designate 16 Maryland counties disaster areas for federal relief because of this summer's drought.

The request was forwarded to the secretary Friday on recommendation of the State Agricultural Disaster Committee.

The counties, in which farmers would be eligible for low cost feed grain and low interest loans, include Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Frederick, Harford, Howard, Montgomery, Prince Georges, Queen Anne's, St. Marys, Talbot, Washington and Worcester.

Drought Poses Threat To Md. Tobacco Crop

LEONARDTOWN, Md. (AP)—Drought conditions in southern Maryland's tobacco country are the worst in 30 years.

Officials in St. Mary's County announced Tuesday they have called a meeting for Saturday morning to discuss ways of coping with the economic crisis.

In addition to tobacco, the yields of corn and soybeans are being seriously affected in southern Maryland.

And the Maryland Crop Reporting Service said Tuesday that rain is needed urgently in the Hancock area for the proper sizing of apples and late peaches.

The apple harvest is due to start next month while peaches are reaching their peak.

State and federal officials are scheduled to attend the meeting in Leonardtown. It is being arranged by State Sen. J. Frank Raley and the county commissioners.

"We believe the problem should be met on a broad scale," they said. "Although there is no cure-all, much can be done to minimize the disastrous effect of this drought by coordinated effort of the various agencies."

While the farmers are the direct sufferers, Raley and the commissioners pointed out that their losses in cash will have effects on other businesses in the area.

Farming is the major source of income in St. Mary's and other southern Maryland counties.

Scheduled to attend Saturday's conference are representatives of Gov. Tawes, Reps. Carlton R. Sickles, Richard E. Lankford, the Federal Area Redevelopment Administration, the state Department of Economic Development and the Farm Bureau.

2 Boys Swim To Freedom

BERLIN (UPI)—Two 16-year-old boys Tuesday dodged Communist bullets to swim across a border canal to freedom in the U.S. sector of West Berlin. Another East German was captured at gunpoint as he tried to scale the Communist wall.

Communist police fired at least 10 rounds at the defenseless youths swimming across the 75-foot-wide Teltow Canal.

The bullets missed and they struggled safely to the Western bank of the canal in the American sector's Buckow district, a country area. They were taken to a hospital for treatment for exhaustion.

The youths had climbed three barbed wire barricades blocking the way to the canal before Eastern border patrols sighted them and rushed up. The boys dived into the canal and the Communists opened fire.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Anthony (Nick) Magliano, 27, pleaded guilty to bookmaking Tuesday and was indicted again along with his brother, Benny, a boxing promoter.

The Maglianos are better known by the last name of Trotta. The 49-year-old Benny once had his Maryland license to promote boxing bouts revoked for alleged association with New York gamblers.

Benny, Nick and Vince DeSantis, 52, were lumped in the indictment charging 17 acts of gambling and paying horse bets.

Nick was among three who decided to plead guilty rather than be tried in another bookmaking case.

The pleas were accepted by U.S. District Judge Edward S. Northrop from Anthony M. Magliano, 27, Joseph J. Rizzo, 49, and Charles W. Manger, 33.

Before leaving, the robbers bound their victims hand and foot with lamp cords. Jones managed to free himself a short time later and called police.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government survey team was reported Tuesday to be considering a location near Harpers Ferry, W. Va., as the northern end of a proposed Allegheny Parkway.

Brushes, Combs Need Grooming Too!

A regular shampoo for hair both metal and plastic, can be brushes, combs, clips, bands and kept clean with very little effort. Hairnets is just as essential as and elbow grease—usually just the regular shampoo you give amount needed to free their finish hair. You can't expect your from collected layers of pomade hair to stay clean and shiny and spray.

You'll find that a revolving poos, you might cover the bristles comb-cleaning brush and wire with cheesecloth or an old nylon whisk are invaluable (and inex-pensive) tools to make this job quickly and easy. The whisk removes accumulated hair from your brush much more effective than a comb can—and, unlike a comb, its teeth won't break "had it" after coping with dust and tangles.

Let these hair grooming aids soak awhile in lukewarm suds to loosen dirt, greasy film and spray residue. After that, just a gentle wash-and-scrub will do the trick, namely hair-brushing ritual. Stand

W.Va. Economy Was Slow During Summer Months

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—its, which climbed 6.1 per cent. The State Chamber of Commerce to an all-time high of $969 million recorded a "seasonable slow" 3.8 per cent.

On a year-to-year basis, coal production was up 28.4 per cent; average weekly earnings of miners, up 13.5 per cent; and from June figures.

The chamber said, however, in July, 1963, "looks better" than it did last July. Eighteen of the 22 indicators did better last month than they did a year ago, the chamber report said. And, for the first seven months of the year, the state's economy is ahead of its 1962 pace in 16 of the 22 indicators.

The railroad strike scheduled to begin Thursday morning threatens any improvement in the West Virginia business outlook. The chamber said "West Virginia's coal moves by rail—and when her coal doesn't move, her economy stands still."

Indicators which showed improvement in July over June levels were gasoline sales, up 9.4 per cent; value of building permits, up 84.6 per cent; bank deb-

City Tax Bills Will Be Mailed

Finance Commissioner Frederick J. Hill said yesterday city tax bills reflecting the new $1.56 tax rate will be in the mail by September 16.

The office of Tax Collector George E. Davis is able to issue bills at this time for any one who may be going on vacation and will not be here to receive bills and pay them during the interest-free period, Hill added.

Water Use Reported

Taxes unpaid 60 days from the date of the levy August 19 will bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent a month.

Hill also announced if any tax-payer has changed his address, the revision can be made on city records until September 10.

The $1.56 rate for each $100 of assessable property is one cent less than that for the 1962-63 fiscal year.

Miller Heads International Apple Group

Henry W. Miller Jr., president of Consolidated Orchards Company, which operates in Allegany, Morgan and Hampshire counties, is the new president of the International Apple Association.

The Paw Paw man was chosen at the meeting of apple growers from all parts of this nation and many foreign countries at the annual meeting in St. Louis last week.

He previously served two terms on the association's board of directors.

Highway Jobs Report Given

Harry T. Skelly, roads supervisor, reported yesterday to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners concerning a number of requests for road repairs.

Buchanan Avenue in Bowling Green is not in the county system, Skelly reported. A fence damaged by road work at the Lawrence Mallory farm on Town Creek has been repaired.

Repairs have been made to Cemetery Road between Mt. Savage and Wellerburg. Furnace Hill Road in Midlothian has been repaired.

Skelly said a large tank culvert has been installed on Henry Drive in LaVale. Helman Drive and Warfield Place in LaVale have been tarred and chipped. A broken drain pipe on New Row in Mt. Savage has been replaced and a drainage ditch cleaned on Pack Horse Road in the Oldtown section.

Letters of thanks were received from the Bowling Green Volunteer Fire Company for use of barricades during a recent street bazaar; from the Allegany County Chapter, American Cancer Society and Allegany-Garrett Heart Association for donations by the county.

Residents of Eleanor Street in LaVale sent a letter of thanks for dust control on the roadway.

Local Barbers Plan Vacation

Members of Cumberland Local 314, Barbers Union, will take their annual vacation Monday, September 2, through Wednesday, September 4, in conjunction with the Labor Day holiday, according to J. Williams Groves, president.

Groves, who is also president of the Maryland State Board of Barbers Examination, will attend the week-long sessions of the National Association of Barber Examiners next week in Indianapolis.

The following week he will participate in the annual convention of the International Barbers Union in the same city as a delegate from Local 314.

He is president of the Consolidated orchard operations and also of Consolidated Distributors, Inc., which handles the firm's sales both domestic and foreign.

Miller is the third generation of his family to be in apple growing industry. His grandfather, William S. Miller of Paw Paw, was the pioneer apple orchardist in West Virginia, having shipped the first boxcar load of apples from the state in 1866.

From that beginning, West Virginia has grown to be a major apple producing state, placing an average of 5,000,000 bushels annually on the market.

Consolidated Orchards and its distributing company comprise one of the ten largest shippers of apples in the United States. Much of its crop is fresh packed, with many bushels going to European and South American markets.

Miller's Father, Henry W. Miller Sr., founded the parent company in 1912 and the current president has worked all his life in the firm, starting as a water boy.

During World War II, he was one of the 13 members of the fresh apple industry committee of Fair Week.

cash the remaining clubs. The only objection to this line of play was that, if clubs failed to break, South would find himself in the dummy for the first and last time. It might then be too late to start development of the spades.

Presently he found a way to give himself a chance to test both suits, and all he paid for the privilege was a mere over-trick. He cashed the king of clubs and then played the queen, overtaking with dummy's ace. If clubs were three-two, he intended to concede a trick to the opponents in order to establish the suit. This would still give him five clubs which together with two heart tricks and the diamond and spade aces add up to the required nine.

When East failed on the second club, the wisdom of South's play became apparent, for it was now revealed that the club suit would not have run in any event. The lead was in dummy so that South could play the jack of spades with the knowledge that, even if East failed to cover the jack, the ace of hearts would provide a reentry later on to repeat the spade finesse. When the spade honors divided and the suit split evenly, declarer was able to develop four spade tricks, enough to bring his total to nine.

Had South taken what appeared to be the easy course and banked everything on the club suit, he would have been unable to make his contract.

started the work last week under start of the Shotcrete process to a $68,000 contract with the city repair and renovate the dam which calls for completion in 95 faces.

Work on the Lake Gordon dam includes the removal of all disintegrated and loose concrete by chipping and sandblasting and restoring to original lines. All restored areas will be blanketed with a two-inch layer of reinforced Gunite or Shotcrete. Areas to be repaired are the entire face of the dam including treads and risers, the walls, the wing walls, the flare-out on each side and the the upstream face of the dam as far as is required.

Lake Gordon areas also will be restored to original lines only flush to adjacent surfaces using reinforced Shotcrete.

The leak through the Gordon dam on the side opposite the Gate

House is to be stopped by pressure grouting, using neat cement grout.

Ann Landers . . . Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I read recently where our state crowned a 10-year-old girl "Little Miss Beautiful." She will be sent to Miami to compete in the Little Miss Universe contest. Two youngsters and three mothers broke down and wept from disappointment when such phone values are emphasized. Why DO anything when you can get all that attention by just being beautiful? It's just to pitiful for words.

The whole thing is nauseating. How can we abide a society that puts a premium on sex-appeal, beauty and poise for 10-year-olds? How can we allow little girls to get the idea that their worth is measured by how they look strutting around in a bathing suit?

Please keep hammering away on the importance of letting children BE children instead of pushing them into an adult world with a lot of false standards. It could be your major contribution to a mixed up world.

—AKRON, B. J.

KC Program Slated Sept. 14

Committee workers for the annual Old Defenders Day program scheduled Saturday, September 14, met last night in the home of Cumberland Council 586, Knights of Columbus.

The affair is sponsored annually by Chief Justice Taney General Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus. John J. Coyle, faithful navigator, said that Lawrence Geiger, general chairman, and his committee men have been working the past several weeks on the affair which is the social highlight of the year for the Assembly.

The formal affair will be held at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club, beginning at 6:30 p.m. with a cocktail party. A dinner and dance will follow.

Members of the assembly should make reservations as soon as possible with Geiger or any member of this committee.

Surplus military weapons, including flares and grenades, are being used by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service to scare off crop-destroying birds.

Dropping Out Of School Discouraged

The Pupil Personnel Division of the Allegany County Board of high school education, according to per cent attending and 69 per cent graduating.

Higgins emphasis is being given to those boys and girls who dropped out last school term. Those who wish to return to school should contact the department so they can register at their respective schools today. Thursday and Friday between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Students who have reached the age of 16 and do not return to school next week will be contacted by the department to determine the reason for the drop-out and to evaluate their ability to pursue their education, Higgins pointed out.

The department tries to eliminate any problem which may be the cause of their dropping out.

A study by the Maryland State Department of Education on high schools shows that in 1890 only eight per cent of high school age children were attending and of these only six per cent graduated.

Route 50 Tavern Is Broken Into

Dot's Place, a tavern on U.S. Route 50 near Shanks, was broken into sometime late Sunday or early Monday.

The intruders smashed the glass in the front door to gain entrance. Several vending machines containing about $25 were broken open. The place was ransacked.

Dorothea Hartman is the proprietor. State Police are investigating the incident.

Raise Cable Price

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp. boosted its price for steel-reinforced electric conductor cable by 1½ cents per pound of steel content, following a similar move by Reynolds Metals Co. at the start of the week.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I read in the paper that parents would exploit 10-year-olds by putting them in a beauty contest. What these parents don't understand is that one of the principle incentives for achievement is destroyed when such phony values are emphasized. I accepted this explanation and then suggested he carry the ring in his pocket to remind him that he is married. He said this was a nutty idea and he refuses to do it. Now I wonder if perhaps he is seeing someone who thinks he is single. We have five children and he's home every night. I've never had any reason to suspect him before now. What do you think?—UNEASY WIFE

DEAR UNEASY: A father of five children doesn't need to carry his wedding ring in his pocket to remind himself that he is married. The grocery and shoe bills are reminder enough. Stop nagging the guy and putting ideas in his head. A man who is at home every night is not likely to be cheating.

Ignorance Is Easy In Modern World

In the fast pace of the modern scientific world, with scientists and inventors in all fields in a seemingly endless race against time and one another in advancing and developing theories and applying them to practical mechanics, the average man in the street is likely to feel somewhat like a frustrated ignoramus.

It is difficult for the average layman, concentrating most of his energies toward earning a livelihood, to more than scratch the surface on any one subject. He usually manages to accumulate a smattering of generalities on all subjects but becomes an expert in none.

If he becomes interested enough in a particular field to spend his leisure time delving into that subject to considerable length, by the time he has mastered the principles then current it is probable he will find those ideas have been scrapped as obsolete and something immensely more difficult substituted therefor.

There is a salve for these frustrated egos. There are numerous age-old mysteries of the universe that even the most devoted scholars have been unable to solve. On subjects such as the Mayan hieroglyphic inscriptions, magma (lava or molten rock) or the period when Indians first came to America, anyone can pass for an expert because there are no immutable facts to back up or dispute any theory.

There is one more subject that has been a perennial scapegoat for the self-proclaimed experts seeking to soothe their ruffled inferiority complexes, and that is the weather. In any group conversation where the participants are hesitant about bluffing their way into strange territory, the weather invariably is pressed into service as a topic. Here at least is one subject where the layman's homespun philosophy has not yet been tarnished by the pronouncements of experts.

These Days

By John Chamberlain

What Freedom Means

The handwriting is on the wall for any nation opposing the aims of the African states that formed a common front recently at Addis Ababa in Ethiopia. Franco's Spain—bowing, even as de Gaulle's France did in Algeria—has signified that it is willing to relinquish its hold on the few square miles of African territory that it still retains. And, inexorably, the African representatives at the UN press their case for getting Portugal out of Angola and Mozambique and for boycotting South Africa as long as it persists in its policies of apartheid.

The Addis Ababa Africans will get their way because of something that started in 1776, when American Britshers, resenting King George III's denial of their rights, declared themselves to be free. But few Americans today will stand up and cheer when the Africans try to link their new tradition of "freedom" with our old one. For the fact is that the twentieth century "revolution" in Africa is a corruption of the eighteenth century revolution. It does not stand for individual rights, it stands for national power.

The continuity of our revolutionary tradition has been cut, and the terrible thing about it is that the school children who trapse through the UN Building in New York City are hardly aware of it as they watch Mr. Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, for example, denounce the white "master race" of South Africa without mentioning the habits of his boss at home. Dictator Nkrumah, who considers any political opposition to the governing clique of Ghana to be a prison offense.

Recently this columnist was browsing through a collection of sermons by American colonial clergymen that had been assembled by his friend, the Reverend Stewart Robinson, who used to preach in Elizabeth, N. J., before he retired to pursue a hobby of historical research. What was striking about the old colonial sermons was the way they had of recurring to the "party line" of the liberal revolution of the eighteenth century as it was formulated by the half-forgotten English philosopher, John Locke. Over and over again, the clergymen of 1776 drummed it into their eighteenth century parishioners that the free man had a right, not merely to national freedom, but to "life, liberty and property." It was a triad, a trinity, of rights, but it was also a unity; for liberty and property, so the clergymen were certain, were the means by which a free man might aspire to control the course of his life without begging for permission to exist.

Listening to Ghana's Quaison-Sackey and others at the UN, as I do from time to time, I get no sense that they care for the Lockean rights as either a trinity or a unity. They want a "right to life" for Africans as members of a sovereign collective, a nation-tribe, which is legitimate enough in terms of their own traditions. But when it comes to individual liberty, and individual property, these things are not thought of as "unalienable," in Thomas Jefferson's phrase. They are considered as gifts to be disposed of arbitrarily by government. And the white man who is faced with the prospect of having his own liberty or property violated if he chooses to stay on in Africa under local rule is usually afraid to risk it.

So we have the spectacle of English ranchers in Kenya getting ready to pull up stakes and depart despite the fact that Africa is the only home they have ever known. They have no trust that old John Locke, with his triad of rights, will mean a thing to the new Kenya rulers of tomorrow. In the Portuguese African territories European ranchers have, in good John Lockean fashion, "mixed their labor" with natural resources to create properties—and liberty—for themselves. They have done this, moreover, without practicing apartheid, or segregation. Now they are threatened with extinction by the terrorist, Holden Roberto.

If the Revolution of 1776 had gone ahead in straight-line fashion, with liberators paying full deference to "life, liberty and property" as an indissoluble three-in-one, Americans might show more enthusiasm for the demands of the Africans. But freedom is not freedom when men, irrespective of the color of their skins, can't look forward to keeping and extracting nourishment and enjoyment from what they have labored to create.

I am perfectly sure the Africans are going to get their way, all the way from Cairo to the Cape. That is the way the winds of ideology are blowing. But what has it got to do with our own revolution, which was fought for the individual, not the tribal state?

Communist Bulgaria Becomes Land Of 'Bikini And Plump Pulchritude'

By Drew Pearson

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Following the thaw in East-West relations, Drew Pearson today reports from Bulgaria, latest communist country to open full-scale relations with the United States.)

VARNA, Bulgaria—This is the last Communist country to come out from behind the American Iron Curtain. Until recently, U. S. passports were stamped "not good for Bulgaria," and if you elected to come here you forfeited the right of State Department protests if you got into trouble.

But while Americans were barred from Bulgaria, the rest of Europe both Communist and capitalist, discovered some of the best bathing beaches in this part of the world and have made the Black Sea coast of Bulgaria the land of the bikini and plump pulchritude.

While Kennedy and Khrushchev worry over nuclear tests, those who relax on the "Golden Sands" of Bulgaria argue over nothing more important than the merits of coppertone and noxema.

When I knew the Balkans after World War I, Bulgaria was a troublesome, ragtime little kingdom which hated its neighbors and was cordially hated in return. It got mixed up on the wrong side of the Balkan wars, bet wrong on two world wars, and paid the penalty.

But today things have changed. There's a new pride in the Bulgarian people, a new cleanliness that's changed from a sleepy Balkan kingdom to an energetic promoter of tourist trade, Macedonian tobacco, belladonna, sunflower seed, and has even developed a new tomato for export, which it proudly exhibited to Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman when he came through the Iron Curtain countries recently.

Massive Field Of 176 Men Gathers For U.S. Singles Tourney

64 Racquetters Must Qualify In Two Days

128 Will Start Banging Away For Title On Friday

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI) — The 82nd U.S. Lawn Tennis championships open Wednesday with 64 men — including 14 foreigners — shooting for qualifying berths in the championship draw.

It'll take two days to cut the massive men's field from 176 to the 128 who'll start banging away on Friday for the title won a year ago by Rocket Rod Laver and by other Aussies every year since Tony Trabert gave the U.S. its last crown in 1955.

Wimbledon champ Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., former champ Roy Emerson of Australia and third-seeded Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., are the men's favorites. Top-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia, defending champ and winner at Wimbledon, dominates the women's field of 96.

The 64 men who'll have to play two qualifying matches each to get into the tournament proper include second-line foreign players and a flock of Americans whose credentials weren't impressive enough to earn them an official invitation to compete.

Fred Sheriff and Graham Primrose of Australia; Tony Ryan and Dave Phillips of South Africa, Detlef Herdy of Austria, Jean Royer and Patrice Beust of France and Leif Beck of Canada were among the better foreign players tossed into the qualifying tests.

Top members of the U.S., British and Mexican Davis Cup teams head for the men's field U.S. and British Wightman Cuppers, plus a strong Australian group led by Miss Smith, lead the gals.

All play, including the qualifying rounds, is scheduled for the grass courts of the West Side Tennis Club, except for a new event this year—the Forest Hills plate competition for first-round losers — which will be held on the composition courts.

A meeting of the league is set for tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the YMCA at which arrangements will be made for the playoffs.

The top eight teams eligible to participate are: Pinto Mennonite (26-4), Emmanuel Methodist (24-4), Second Baptist (24-6), Old Furnace (22-6), First Methodist (19-9), Memorial Baptist (16-10), Calvary Baptist (18-12) and Cresaptown Methodist 17-13.

Charley Liller hit a Homer for Old Furnace and Llewellyn rapped a pair of doubles for Trinity Methodist.

A triple by Charley Robinson and Dave Grapes' sacrifice fly in the 9th inning gave Memorial Baptist the decision over Calvary Baptist.

Paul Paugh and Donnie Lawrence shared six of Cresaptown Methodist's 15 hits. Allen Haines had three hits for Potomac Park. Scores:

AT ROLLING MILL: Old Furnace 202 010 6-5 10 2. Trinity Meth. 000 010 1-2 4. Don Kennedy and Art Moreland: Harold Corrigan and Gary Siebert. RR—Charley Liller (Old Furnace).

Yankees Score Two Shutouts Over Red Sox

Bouton And Terry Post 5-0, 3-0 Wins

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jim Bouton and Ralph Terry pitched back-to-back shutouts over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night for a pair of 5-0 and 3-0 victories that ballooned the New York Yankees' American League lead to 12½ games.

Bouton set down the Red Sox on two hits in the opener while Terry turned in a five-hitter in the nightcap for his 15th victory against 13 defeats.

The two shutouts, achieved before a crowd of 34,319, marked the third and fourth by Yankee pitchers in the team's last five games.

Bobby Richardson broke up a scoreless struggle in the eighth inning of the nightcap when he singled off Arnold Earley with runners on first and second. The Yankees then loaded the bases in the same frame and Yogi Berra's ground-rule double chased home two more runs.

Bouton, who won his 18th in the opener, pitched no-hit ball until Russ Nixon led off the ninth with a pinch single to center.

Gary Geiger followed with a single but Chuck Schilling bounded into a double play and Carl Yastrzemski grounded out to end the game.

Bouton walked one batter and struck out two in fashioning his fifth shutout — 25 years to the day former Yankee pitcher Monte Pearson hurled the first no-hitter at Yankee Stadium.

Massive Field Of 176 Men Gathers For U.S. Singles Turney

64 Racqueters Must Qualify In Two Days

128 Will Start Banging Away For Title On Friday

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—The 82nd U.S. Lawn Tennis championships open Wednesday with 64 men—including 14 foreigners—shooting for qualifying berths in the championship draw.

It'll take two days to cut the massive men's field from 176 to the 128 who'll start banging away on Friday for the title won a year ago by Rocket Rod Laver and by other Aussies every year since Tony Trabert gave the U.S. its last crown in 1955.

Wimbledon champ Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., former champ Roy Emerson of Australia and third-seeded Dennis Ransford of Bakersfield, Calif., are the men's favorites. Top-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia, defending champ and winner at Wimbledon, dominates the women's field of 96.

The 64 men who'll have to play two qualifying matches each to get into the tournament proper include second-line foreign players and a flock of Americans whose credentials weren't impressive enough to earn them an official invitation to compete.

Fred Sherriff and Graham Primrose of Australia; Tony Ryan and Dave Phillips of South Africa; Detlef Herdy of Austria; Jean Royer and Patrice Beur of France and Leif Beck of Canada were among the better foreign players tossed into the qualifying tests.

Top members of the U.S., British and Mexican Davis Cup teams head for the men's field U.S. and British Wightman Cuppers, plus a strong Australian group led by Miss Smith, lead the gals.

All play, including the qualifying rounds, is scheduled for the grass courts of the West Side Tennis Club, except for a new event this year—the Forest Hills plate competition for first-round losers—which will be held on the composition courts.

Yankees Score Two Shutouts Over Red Sox

Bouton And Terry Post 5-0, 3-0 Wins

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jim Bouton and Ralph Terry pitched back-to-back shutouts over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night for a pair of 5-0 and 3-0 victories that ballooned the New York Yankees' American League lead to 12½ games.

Bouton set down the Red Sox on two hits in the opener while Terry turned in a five-hitter in the nightcap for his 15th victory against 13 defeats.

The two shutouts, achieved before a crowd of 34,319, marked the third and fourth by Yankee pitchers in the team's last five games.

Bobby Richardson broke up a scoreless struggle in the eighth inning of the nightcap when he singled off Arnold Earley with runners on first and second. The Yanks then loaded the bases in the same frame and Yogi Berra's ground-rule double bashed home two more runs.

Bouton, who won his 18th in the opener, pitched no-hit ball until Russ Nixon led off the ninth with a pinch single to center.

Gary Geiger followed with a single but Chuck Schilling bounded into a double play and Carl Yastrzemski grounded out to end the game.

Bouton walked one batter and struck out two in fashioning his fifth shutout—25 years to the day former Yankee pitcher Monte Pearson hurled the first no-hitter at Yankee Stadium.

Win On Errors, 2-1, Friend Bags No. 16

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Manny Mota singled to centerfield in the ninth inning Tuesday night and he and Dick Schofield scored on two errors to give the Pittsburgh Glass twice by scores of 5-0 and C. P. Telephone Company 4-0 prior to yesterday's shutout and hurled three scoreless innings against Rothe Heating on August 1 in a game he won by the score of 10-1.

In the first inning, the Vets jumped on Junior Brelsford for three runs on Mil Dean's walk, Jim Eckard's single, Ronnie Cage's two-run double and Tom McLuckie's hit.

Dean's triple and Eckard's sacrifice fly opened the scoring in the third and after Cage hit a single, Meeks smashed a home run.

Cage's circuit belt followed Eckard's single in the fifth inning.

Brelsford struck out seven and walked two while suffering his third loss against eight victories.

Speedy Scot Is Made 2-5 Favorite In Trotting Classic At Du Quoin

14 Slated To Vie In Hambletonian, Purse Is $115,549

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — The brute power of Speedy Scot, pegged by many harness racing experts as one of the all-time great trotters, will be turned toward winning the $115,549 Hambletonian in record time Wednesday.

At 2-5 unofficial odds, the overgrown 1,100-pound colt of Castleton Farm, Lexington, Ky., ranks among the most impressive pre-race favorites since the blue ribbon classic for 3-year-old trotters was inaugurated in 1926.

Four Fillies In Race

The winner of the Yonkers Futurity—first leg of trotting's triple crown, which is rounded out by the Hambletonian and the Kentucky Futurity—will face nine other colts and four fillies in the race for the biggest jewel at the Du Quoin State Fairgrounds, where pari-mutuel betting is prohibited by law.

The finely-groomed clay mile oval is among the world's fastest tracks. On it in 1932, five years before it became the site of the Hambletonian, Star's Pride set an all-around competitive record for trotters with a mile heat in 1:57 1-5. In 1961, all Hambletonian marks fell when Jimmy Arthur drove Harlan Dean to successive heat victories in 1:58 2-5 and 1:59. Seeks First In 13

Two other marks that experts think Speedy Scot and his driver-trainer, Ralph Baldwin—seeking his first Hambletonian triumph in 13 attempts—can shoot are:

The world standard for 3 years old trotters in competition (1:58 1-5 by Caleb at Lexington, Ky., in 1961) and the all-time low, trotted only against the clock (1:55 1/4 by Greyhound in 1938 at Lexington).

A record fairgrounds crowd of about 40,000 is predicted for Wednesday by Don Hayes, who with his brother, Gene, sponsors the Hambletonian. Scattered clouds but no rain was the latest weather forecast.

The first horse to win two heats takes the Hambletonian Trophy and $56,619 top award. Prize money will be distributed for the first time to as many as five places. Second is worth $28,309.

Del Miller To Drive

All 14 Hambletonian hopefuls took final jogs on the track Tuesday. In addition to Speedy Scot, a Baldwin-trained entry includes Captain's Boy of Castleton Farm, driven by Del Cameron, and Dorado, owned by Hall Stables of Watertown, N.Y., piloted by Del Miller. The entry is 2-5 on the unofficial line.

Second choice at 4-1 at Chester Honey, the top trotting filly of 1962 who is recuperating from a virus attack, and B. F. Coalton, also nursed back to shape after a lung and throat infection.

Cassady Is Put On Waiver List

Played For Seven Seasons In N.F.L.

HERSHEY, Pa. (UPI) — Hopalong Cassady, the former Ohio State all-American who has played seven seasons in the National Football League, was one of six players put up on waivers Wednesday by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Cassady, the Detroit Lions' No. 1 draft choice prior to the 1956 season, broke his leg in the Eagles' 10th game of last year, against the New York Giants, and did not play again for the rest of the campaign.

The 29-year-old, 185-pound Cassady became expendable largely because of the rapid development of rookie Ron Goodwin of Baylor.

Cassady played six seasons with the Lions, started last season with the Cleveland Browns and then was waived by the Eagles around mid-season.

Cassady, the Detroit Lions' No. 1 draft choice prior to the 1956 season, broke his leg in the Eagles' 10th game of last year, against the New York Giants, and did not play again for the rest of the campaign.

The 29-year-old, 185-pound Cassady became expendable largely because of the rapid development of rookie Ron Goodwin of Baylor.

Speedy Scot Is Made 2-5 Favorite In Trotting Classic At Du Quoin

14 Slated To Vie In Hambletonian, Purse Is $115,549

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — The brute power of Speedy Scot, pegged by many harness racing experts as one of the all-time great trotters, will be turned toward winning the $115,549 Hambletonian in record time Wednesday.

At 2-5 unofficial odds, the overgrown 1,100-pound colt of Castleton Farm, Lexington, Ky., ranks among the most impressive pre-race favorites since the blue ribbon classic for 3-year-old trotters was inaugurated in 1926.

Four Fillies In Race

The winner of the Yonkers Futurity—first leg of trotting's triple crown, which is rounded out by the Hambletonian and the Kentucky Futurity—will face nine other colts and four fillies in the race for the biggest jewel at the Du Quoin State Fairgrounds, where pari-mutuel betting is prohibited by law.

The finely-groomed clay mile oval is among the world's fastest tracks. On it in 1952, five years before it became the site of the Hambletonian, Star's Pride set an all-around competitive record for trotters with a mile heat in 1:57.1. In 1961, all Hambletonian marks fell when Jimmy Arthur drove Harlan Dean to successive heat victories in 1:58.2 and 1:59.3.

Two other marks that experts think Speedy Scot and his driver-trainer Ralph Baldwin—seeking his first Hambletonian triumph in 13 attempts—can shoot are:

The world standard for 3 years old trotters in competition (1:58.1-5.1 by Caleb at Lexington, Ky., in 1961) and the all-time low, trotted only against the clock (1:55.4 by Greyhound in 1938 at Lexington).

A record fairgrounds crowd of about 40,000 is predicted for Wednesday by Don Hayes, who with his brother, Gene, sponsors the Hambletonian. Scattered clouds but no rain was the latest weather forecast.

The first horse to win two heats takes the Hambletonian Trophy and $56,619 top award. Prize money will be distributed for the first time to as many as five places. Second is worth $28,309.

Del Miller To Drive

All 14 Hambletonian hopefuls took final jogs on the track Tuesday. In addition to Speedy Scot, a Baldwin-trained entry includes Captain's Boy of Castleton Farm, driven by Del Cameron, and Dorado, owned by Hall Stables of Watertown, N.Y., piloted by Del Miller. The entry is 2-5 on the unofficial line.

Second choice at 4-1 at Cheer Honey, the top trotting filly of 1962 who is recuperating from a virus attack, and B. F. Coaltrain, also nursed back to shape after a lung and throat infection.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all our friends, neighbors and relatives who were so kind to us during our recent illness, including our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Helen Phillips. We especially wish to thank the pallbearers, those who sent mass cards, floral tributes, contributions to the Cancer Society and those who donated the use of their cars or who rendered service to our Husband and Daughters.

In Memoriam

VAIDER — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Calvin L. Vaider, who passed away August 19, 1963. His passing was hard to comprehend.

The hills were hard to climb;

He gently closed his loving eyes

And whispered: "Peace be thine."

His weary hours, his days of pain,

His weary patient, worn-out frame

Has found sweet rest at last.

Mother, Brothers and Sisters

Bids Opened For Thruway Bridge Here

Baltimore Firm Is Apparent Low Bidder

The apparent low bid of $1,098,999 was submitted by C. J. Langenfelder and Sons, Inc. of Baltimore, one of three bids opened there yesterday by the State Roads Commission on a contract to build a bridge on the south approach of the Cumberland Thruway over the B&O Railroad tracks.

The contract also calls for the grading, draining and surfacing of a dual highway from the intersection of Cresap and Thomas streets north to Williams Street, a distance of 0.46 mile.

The bridge will start from a point on Winoos Street where the old Community Ball Park was located and run on a horizontal curve to a point opposite the Cumberland Macaroni Factory on Thomas Street.

The bridge will have two 34-foot dual lanes with a four-foot median strip. There will be five-foot-wide sidewalks for pedestrians.

The structure will be constructed of steel and will have steel girders.

Iron Mountain Man Admits Assaulding Son

William Daniel Leasure, 54, of RFD 2, Williams Road, yesterday was given a two-year suspended sentence in the Maryland House of Correction by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill in Allegany County Circuit Court after he pleaded guilty to an assault upon his 19-year-old son, Melvin Peter Leasure.

County Investigator William F. Baker arrested the older Leasure after he fired a shotgun more than 260 feet at his son about 1 p.m. August 9 on Irons Mountain. One pellet from the shotgun struck the boy's arm. He was treated at Memorial Hospital.

State's Attorney James S. Getty informed Judge Hamill, who came from Oakland for the trial, that the son first struck his father during an argument and then ran outside. The father walked to the porch of the house on Irons Mountain and fired at his son.

Judge Hamill told Leasure that he must be of good behavior, must refrain from the use of alcoholic beverages, must abide by Welfare Board regulations and must get rid of his firearms.

When Leasure appeared in Trial Magistrates Court on August 12 the state prayed a jury trial, which automatically moved the case up to Circuit Court. The man was freed under a $1,000 bond on August 13.

County Gets Road Reports

Reports on a number of road complaints were submitted to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners by Roy J. Loar, assistant county roads supervisor.

Mr. Loar informed the commissioners that a large tank culvert has been installed under Henry Drive in LaVale. The job also includes reenforced concrete wing wall, corrugated metal hand rails and end terminals. The surface will be laid in about six weeks after the fill has a chance to settle.

The assistant supervisor also disclosed that a broken drain pipe under New Row in Mt. Savage has been repaired.

A drainage problem by the drive-way at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester G. Powell, Pack Horse Road, Oldtown, has been corrected.

A double surface treatment with tar and chips has been applied to Warfield Place in LaVale, the commissioners were told.

Two letters of thanks came to the county commissioners for contributions. These were written by Mrs. Lucile Roeder, chairman of the Allegany County chapter, American Cancer Society, and Dr. G. Overton Himmelwright, president of the Allegany-Garrett County Heart Association.

YMCA Bus Trip Set For This Saturday

The YMCA will sponsor a children's bus trip to Pittsburgh on Saturday to see a baseball game between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds. The bus will leave Central YMCA at 8:30 a.m., according to Benjamin Haines, secretary.

Two other trips are scheduled for September 14 and 28. The earlier trip will be to the Luray Caverns, Virginia, and the latter to Pittsburgh to see the University of Pittsburgh play the University of Washington in football.

CUF Appoints Co-Chairmen Of 'Golden Gifts'

Goal Of $125,000 Same As Last Year

Two executives in area industry have accepted appointments to serve as co-chairmen of the Cumberland Golden Gifts division of the seventh annual County United Fund campaign, it was announced yesterday by Walter E. Dyck, campaign general chairman.

Robert Hunter Jr., procurement administrator at Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, and J. Carson Dowell, executive vice president at Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, accepted bids to head what has been traditionally one of the biggest divisions of the CUF campaign.

This year marks Mr. Hunter's second as co-chairman of the big givers' division, and both he and Mr. Dowell are veterans in the "mission of mercy and hope carried out every day of every year," Mr. Dyck said.

In last year's Golden Gifts campaign in the Cumberland area, Mr. Hunter teamed with Mr. Dyck to complete a highly successful campaign. The 1962 Golden Givers realized $127,837.80, or 102.3 percent of their goal.

The division will have the same goal of $125,000 this year under the leadership of Mr. Hunter and Mr. Dowell.

Both Forecast Success

Basing their predictions on the past record of the Golden Gifts division, both 1963 co-chairmen forecast additional success in the big givers' division.

Mr. Hunter commented that never had he been so impressed with the response to the appeal for help on behalf of less fortunate citizens than he was last year with Golden Givers. He added, "I am confident that their concern for helping those who cannot help themselves will once again carry us over the goal this year."

Mr. Dowell, who served as a co-chairman of the classified division in the 1960 campaign, also expressed confidence in the big givers this year. A veteran CUF leader, the co-chairman said he has seen "miracles worked in our community through County United Fund giving over the years," and the part played in these accomplishments by Golden Gifts' big givers.

Here Since 1960

Mr. Hunter, with ABL here since May 16, 1960, is a graduate of Boston University, where he received his bachelor of science degree. He resides at 1401 Bedford Street, and is married to the former Alberta Treiber of Cumberland.

Not long after coming to Cumberland, Mr. Hunter began helping County United Fund and the community in raising funds for CUF's participating health, social service and youth agencies. Mr. Hunter is the father of two sons, Pfc. David E. Hunter, 25, stationed at Fort Polk, La., in the finance corps and a graduate of Boston University, and Robert E. Hunter, 23, currently employed in the London office of the Navy Polaris program, a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a Fulbright scholar.

Mr. Dowell, has not only been active in CUF work, but directly with some of its agencies as well. Joining Kelly after having held various positions with the Good Year Tire and Rubber Company, the Missouri Valley College graduate has been a board member of the Central YMCA and has been active in Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America. Man Is Given Jail Term In Truck Theft

John Wayne Poffenberger, 23, of Williams Road, who was arrested last week for stealing a truck and contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old girl, yesterday was sentenced to 30 days in the County Jail.

Juvenile Magistrate Louis A. Fatin fined Poffenberger $100 on the contributing charge and committed him in default of the fine.

The girl involved in the case also was found guilty and sentence was deferred. She was placed on probation.

Magistrate Harold E. Naughton found Poffenberger guilty of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and driving a vehicle while his license was refused. He was fined $100 on each charge and given 30 days on each charge in default, but the magistrate ruled that the terms could run concurrently with the Juvenile Court verdict.

Poffenberger and the girl were picked up August 20 near Oldtown by State Police and he was charged with taking a truck owned by Ballard's Cleaners on August 18.

The state's case in both courts was presented by Deputy State's Attorney Donald W. Mason.

Public School Activities Begin With Registration

Allegany County public school activities for the 1963-64 school year begin with high school registration today, tomorrow and Friday for newcomers and transfers.

Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster said the high school registration for those new to the county and transferring to different schools will be held from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. all three days.

Elementary school registration, again for newcomers and transfers only, will be from 9 a.m. until noon Thursday only.

Conferences for the school principals will be conducted on Friday. Elementary principals will meet at 9:30 a.m. and high school principals at 1:30 p.m., both in the administration building on Washington Street.

Then on Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. each principal will meet with his or her faculty at the respective schools.

Conferences for the school principals will be conducted on Friday. Elementary principals will meet at 9:30 a.m. and high school principals at 1:30 p.m., both in the administration building on Washington Street.

Classes will start Wednesday, September 4, at 9 a.m. and there will be half-day sessions ending at noon the first two days. The first full session, with dismissal at 3:30 p.m., will be held Friday, September 6.

First holiday of the school year will be October 17 and 18 when classes are closed because of the State Teachers' Association convention in Baltimore. The following Wednesday, October 23, also will be a holiday for the second annual Business-Industry Education Day.

The Legislative Council's committee on Forests and Parks made the announcement at a meeting Tuesday.

Del. Richard Grumbacher, D-Washington, said the hydro-power operation at the lake was no longer economical and that the power company had been trying to interest other electrical energy suppliers in buying the lake without success.

A minimum purchase price for the lake would be set by the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission and the Maryland Public Service Commission, with the power company free to set any higher price it could obtain.

The lake, a favorite recreation area in Western Maryland, is ringed by private homes and commercial developments around much of its 65-mile waterfront, but the beach and shore areas are owned by the power company.

Students Stay In School, Ewald Urges

Another plea to teen-age boys and girls to remain in high school until graduation was made yesterday by Edward L. Ewald, district manager of the Potomac Edison Company.

Mr. Ewald made his appeal to the young people of Allegany County particularly in a letter to J. Goodloe Jackson, president of the County Board of Education.

A week ago, Mr. Jackson announced at the August meeting of the Board of Education that he had appointed a county-wide committee to discourage dropouts among boys and girls who have passed their 16th birthday. This committee was named in response to a personal letter from President John F. Kennedy.

Louis A. Fatin, magistrate for juveniles cases in Allegany County, has accepted the chairmanship of the dropout committee.

Mr. Ewald's letter read in part: "Young people must realize that with more applicants than jobs and with the trend toward more sophisticated equipment, an education is not only desirable, but really essential. I am sure that this is true in the electric utility industry and I am confident it must be true in practically all other businesses."

"My suggestion would be to think twice before dropping out of high school and then don't do it."

Alfalfa Weevil Fight Continues

Alfalfa growers in Allegany County are being urged to continue the fight against alfalfa weevils.

Joseph M. Steger, county farm agent, recommends fall treatment with either heptachlor or dialein to those alfalfa growers who have had good results — with the understanding that weevils in some areas have become resistant to these insecticides.

This resistance is expected to become more widespread, according to Mr. Steger, who said treatment earlier in the year has worked.

Defendants in the action are James H. Durkin and Ruth Durkin, trading as Ruth's Tavern, 27 Williams Street.

The declaration contends that James H. Durkin caused the "illegal and false arrest" of the plaintiff on August 2, thereby invading his rights, depriving him of his liberty and injuring his feelings and reputation.

Owens' Term Is Suspended For Arson

Strict Probation Faces Young Man

Carl Wayne Owens, 26, of Woodland, yesterday was given a five-year suspended sentence in the Maryland Penitentiary by Associate Judge W. Earle Cobey for arson and the young man was placed on strict probation in Allegany County Circuit Court.

Owens was found guilty last Wednesday of arson in the burning of an unoccupied 12-room dwelling owned by Christopher Kaefer early on July 31. Mr. Kaefer had boarded up the windows of the house with plywood before leaving for Florida.

Judge Cobey stipulated that Owens must make restitution to the owner of the house, not to exceed $500, to pay for uninsured furnishings in the place. These payments are to be arranged by James F. Lewis, state probation officer.

The defendant also must refrain from the use of intoxicating liquor, must not associate with people in the Woodland area and will continue under probation for five years. If any of the provisions of the probation are violated, Owens will be committed to the penitentiary to serve the five years.

Bids Opened For Thruway Bridge Here

Baltimore Firm Is Apparent Low Bidder

The apparent low bid of $1,098,999 was submitted by C. J. Langenfelder and Sons, Inc. of Baltimore, one of three bids opened there yesterday by the State Roads Commission on a contract to build a bridge on the south approach of the Cumberland Thruway over the B&O Railroad tracks.

The contract also calls for the grading, draining and surfacing of a dual highway from the intersection of Cresap and Thomas streets north to Williams Street, a distance of 0.46 mile.

The bridge will start from a point on Wineow Street where the old Community Ball Park was located and run on a horizontal curve to a point opposite the Cumberland Macaroni Factory on Thomas Street.

The bridge will have two 34-foot dual lanes with a four-foot median strip. There will be five-foot-wide sidewalk for pedestrians.

The structure will be constructed of steel and will have steel girders.

Iron Mountain Man Admits Assaulding Son

William Daniel Leisure, 54, of RFD 2, Williams Road, yesterday was given a two-year suspended sentence in the Maryland House of Correction by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill in Allegany County Circuit Court after he pleaded guilty to an assault upon his 19-year-old son, Melvin Peter Leisure.

County Investigator William F. Baker arrested the older Leisure after he fired a shotgun more than 260 feet at his son about 1 p.m. August 9 on Irons Mountain. One pellet from the shotgun struck the boy's arm. He was treated at Memorial Hospital.

State's Attorney James S. Getty informed Judge Hamill, who came from Oakland for the trial, that the son first struck his father during an argument and then ran outside. The father walked to the porch of the house on Irons Mountain and fired at his son.

Judge Hamill told Leisure that he must be of good behavior, must refrain from the use of alcoholic beverages, must abide by Welfare Board regulations and must get rid of his firearms.

When Leisure appeared in Trial Magistrates Court on August 12 the state prayed a jury trial, which automatically moved the case up to Circuit Court. The man was freed under a $1,000 bond on August 13.

County Gets Road Reports

Reports on a number of road complaints were submitted to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners by Roy J. Roar, assistant county roads supervisor.

Mr. Roar informed the commissioners that a large tank culvert has been installed under Henry Drive in LaVale. The job also includes reenforced concrete wing wall, corrugated metal hand rails and end terminals. The surface will be laid in about six weeks after the fill has a chance to settle.

The assistant supervisor also disclosed that a broken drain pipe under New Row in Mt. Savage has been repaired.

A drainage problem by the driveway at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester G. Powell, Pack Horse Road, Oldtown, has been corrected.

A double surface treatment with tar and chips has been applied to Warfield Place in LaVale, the commissioners were told.

Two letters of thanks came to the county commissioners for contributions. These were written by Mrs. Lucile Roeder, chairman of the Allegany County chapter, American Cancer Society, and Dr. G. Overton Himmelwright, president of the Allegany-Garrett County Heart Association.

CUF Appoints Co-Chairmen Of 'Golden Gifts'

Two executives in area industry have accepted appointments to serve as co-chairmen of the Cumberland Golden Gifts division of the seventh annual County United Fund campaign, it was announced yesterday by Walter E. Dyck, campaign general chairman.

Robert Hunter Jr., procurement administrator at Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, and J. Carson Dowell, executive vice president at Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, accepted bids to head what has been traditionally one of the biggest divisions of the CUF campaign.

This year marks Mr. Hunter's second as co-chairman of the big givers' division, and both he and Mr. Dowell are veterans in the "mission of mercy and hope carried out every day of every year," Mr. Dyck said.

In last year's Golden Gifts campaign in the Cumberland area, Mr. Hunter teamed with Mr. Dyck to complete a highly successful campaign. The 1962 Golden Givers realized $127,867.80, or 102.3 percent of their goal.

The division will have the same goal of $125,000 this year under the leadership of Mr. Hunter and Mr. Dowell.

The additional trunk lines will help ease the present load between the two points and work will begin on the project in late September.

The local project was included in $4,600,000 authorized by the board at its meeting on Monday.

The largest single expenditure approved was $2,300,000 for new equipment at Silver Spring.

Several other large projects throughout the state also were included in the expansion funds.
